ABOUT THE ACADEMY

WITH BREXIT SET TO CHANGE THE WAY WE TRADE, IT'S NEVER BEEN MORE IMPORTANT FOR UK BUSINESSES TO BE ABLE TO ACCESS PROFESSIONAL AND INDUSTRY-RECOGNISED SKILLS AROUND INTERNATIONAL TRADE.

Global supply chains are also becoming increasingly complex and businesses need to ensure they have the competence required to trade compliantly and confidently. A failure to keep up with the latest advances in international Customs could mean a loss of competitive edge as well as potential delays and fines at the border.

The UK Customs Academy has been developed by KGH Customs Services UK in collaboration with the Institute of Export & International Trade and the Centre for Customs and Excise Studies at the request of HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) to support UK businesses in overcoming the challenges and seizing the potential that international trade presents. The Academy provides a broad and accessible range of high-quality training and learning courses. It gives businesses and individuals the opportunity to gain the knowledge and skills they will need to thrive in Customs after Brexit.

The UK Customs Academy will become an essential resource for industry professionals, which offers leading-edge training and education as well as a unique range of individual and business membership benefits to support the profession – providing invaluable business resources, advice on industry best practice, and a virtual community for a range of industry professionals.

From level 3 onwards the courses include a subscription to the UCC Navigator with a value of £600.

The UCC Navigator is a unique and innovative tool to navigate the complexity of the EU's Union Customs Code which must be read in conjunction with the Delegated Act, the Transitional Delegated Act and the Implementing Act to gain a proper understanding and interpretation of the legal provisions.

QUALIFICATIONS

The qualifications being offered by the Academy provide practical progression routes, encourage new entrants into the sector and further provide credibility in the profession through Continuing Professional Development (CPD).

All UK Customs Academy courses are designed to complement training courses that learners have previously completed, as well as previous industry experience.

Consequently, applicants may apply for exemptions from specific modules based on evidence of learning arising from industry experience and related study or training, even though it may not have been formally accredited.

DEVELOPMENT PATHWAY FOR CUSTOMS PROFESSIONALS

The Academy offers a recognised development pathway for customs professionals that comprises six qualification levels.

Each qualification level articulates into the higher-level awards, in order to provide a clear learning pathway for the aspiring customs professional.

LEVEL 2 CUSTOMS PRACTICE & PROCEDURE AWARD

THIS ENTRY-LEVEL QUALIFICATION IS DESIGNED TO GET PEOPLE STARTED IN THE CUSTOMS PROFESSION.

It introduces you to the fundamentals of customs practice and procedure, including the basics of how to prepare customs declarations for exports and imports. On successful completion of this introductory course you will gain a general understanding and knowledge of the key concepts, relevant processes and terminology of the customs profession, and an awareness of the resources available to you to advance your professional knowledge and skills.

The Customs Practice & Procedure Award consists of six modules:

- Introduction to Trade and Customs
- Customs Processes and Procedures
- Calculating Import Duty
- Customs Declarations
- Export and Import Controls
- Other Matters

Note: No formal qualifications are required for entry into this course.

Designed to fit around a full-time career, it allows students to study online with hyperlinks to reference sites, videos, examples and step-by-step guides for putting the theory into practice.

£500

The cost of the qualification is £500.

40 HOURS (USUAL DURATION 4 MONTHS)

As a guide, you should expect to study for a total of around 40 hours to complete all six modules.

The course must be completed within one year, but the usual period of study is 4 months. These are recommended hours only, as the completion time will vary from student to student.

STUDYING WITH US

THE UK CUSTOMS ACADEMY OFFERS DISTANCE LEARNING COURSES FOR ALL OF ITS PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS.

The courses provide students with flexibility to start their studies at any point within the year and access the learning materials whenever they like, from any location in the world.

The distance learning courses are composed of comprehensive notes, which follow the syllabus requirements of the professional qualifications. The material guides students through their chosen course, defining and explaining the concepts and procedures of customs and international trade.

All courses contain self-assessment tests, which enable students to determine how they are progressing.

Our level 3 and higher qualifications provide access to a tutor for each of the modules. Students are able to submit interim (formative) assignments for marking and informative feedback, which helps identify where they may need to target further study and revision. Tutors are also available, by phone or e-mail, to answer enquiries related to the syllabus, provide explanations and further reading.

All our tutors are appropriately qualified to teach the courses, and all have worked or are working within the customs profession. When you take a level 3 or higher qualification through the UK Customs Academy you will automatically receive Student Membership of the Institute of Export & International Trade through our reciprocal arrangements with the Institute – giving you access to an additional range of benefits and services that can support your studies and international trade career.
